SAVE AS: Omeka 101
Wednesday Nov. 7, 12–1 PM
Hilites Video Viewing Room, Magill w/ Jen Raichel BMC’10 and Laurie Allen
Come to Omeka 101 to learn the ins and outs of creating compelling online narratives using Omeka, a free, open-source platform developed by the Center for History and New Media and George Mason University.

SAVE AS: Maps, Charts, Tables
Thursday Nov. 8, 12–12:30 PM
Hilites Video Viewing Room, Magill w/ Laurie Allen & Kylen Solvik’15
Create data visualization tables, charts, and maps with Excel, GoogleFusion tables & Tableau Public. Laptops Welcome.

SAVE AS: Crafting Your Online Presence
Monday Nov. 12, 4–5 PM
Hilites Video Viewing Room, Magill w/ Jen Raichel BMC’10, CDO, and CAR
Have you ever Googled yourself? At this session, we will talk about how to use tools like LinkedIn and Twitter to leverage your online identity. We’ll develop some rubrics for thinking about platform adoption and talk a bit about who owns your data. Laptops welcome!

SAVE AS: How to Make a Poster
Monday Nov. 12, 12:30–1:30 PM
Hilites Video Viewing Room, Magill w/ Shahzeen Nasim’15 & Laurie Allen
Magill Library’s new poster printer can print humongous posters for students & faculty, and poster printing is free for academic use! At this workshop, Laurie and Shahzeen will cover strategies for creating posters. All skill levels are welcome! We will make super simple posters and those that are crafty and creative (not to say that simple and creative are mutually exclusive characteristics).

SAVE AS: Animation & TVPaint
Wednesday Nov. 14, 2–3:30 PM
ITC Stokes 205 w/ Jon Appel’12, creator of “digital world”
Jon’s workshop will give students an introduction to TVPaint software, particularly in its use and application in creating digitally hand-drawn animation. Students will look into the ‘anatomy’ of an animated film, and will create their own animations. There will be a screening of a few animated short films. Only 7 spots available! Reserve your space now! Email snasim@haverford.edu Sponsored by Digital Media Lab.

SAVE AS: How to Write an Email
Thursday Nov. 15, 4–5 PM
Hilites Video Viewing Room, Magill w/ Jen Raichel BMC’10 & Lionel Anderson
In this session, we will cover the basic anatomy of an email and email etiquette. We also be covering the trickier aspects, or the politics of email. We invite you to bring your questions, laptops, and email gone-wrong scenarios.

Interested in running a workshop related to digital scholarship and media? Want to recommend a workshop? Email snasim@hc!! Do it.